

HARRIERS Season Ticket holders unable to make a game at Aggborough can now send their season ticket to another Harriers fan with just a few clicks!

We want to make sure that tickets are used, so it's now easier than ever to transfer your ticket to someone else if you can no longer make it to a match.

Log into your account online and open your season ticket order, click on 'show items' to see the list of matches covered by your season ticket and tick the box next to the match that you would like to send to someone. Then click the 'Forward' button.

Forward

You can send the ticket to someone in your friends and family list or if they aren't already listed, you can add or look up a supporter if you know their details. You just need to know their name and account number or email address.

Forward Tickets

Forwarding your ticket to another fan will post your ticket to them and will notify them that they have a ticket to accept. Once the person you have forwarded your tickets to has accepted, your tickets will be transferred permanently into their account.

Cancel Posting(s)

If you want to take your ticket back, click on the ‘Cancel Posting’ button.

Once someone has accepted a ticket that you have forwarded to them, you will not be able to take it back.

If you are a recipient of a forwarded ticket, you will receive an email to let you know that someone has sent you a ticket.

Log in to your account to accept the ticket. You will have the chance to update the concession type if necessary and pay the difference if required at the checkout. Select the concession type you require and proceed to the checkout.

Tickets Forwarded To You

This is a list of tickets that have been forwarded to you. If you would like to accept a forwarded ticket, add it to your cart and checkout. If there is anything additional to pay, you will see this at the checkout. You can then receive the tickets via your chosen delivery method.

Please add these to your cart and checkout to receive these forwarded tickets.
